KIDIST KEMAL

FULL-STACK DEVELOPER | AI & WEB APPLICATIONS | IT STUDENT

LinkedIn · GitHub · Ethiopia

PROFILE

Fourth-year Information Technology student at Jimma University and full-stack developer focused on building useful, user-centered web applications. Works with React and Next.js and has project experience in responsive web design, JavaScript, AI-enabled products, and interactive applications. Interested in applying technology to practical problems and creating accessible digital experiences.

EDUCATION & ACHIEVEMENT

B.Sc. Information Technology
Jimma University · Fourth-year student · Currently enrolled

1st Place — Cursor AI Hackathon Ethiopia
Team achievement; project: Ayne, an AI accessibility platform for blind and visually impaired people.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Web: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript (ES6+), React, Next.js, responsive/mobile-first design

Tools: Git, GitHub, VS Code, browser DevTools

Additional: AI integration and productivity tools, UI/UX principles, cybersecurity and network-security fundamentals

SELECTED PROJECTS

Ayne — AI Accessibility Platform
Team project developed for the Cursor AI Hackathon Ethiopia; designed to support blind and visually impaired people. Team placed 1st in the hackathon.

QueueLess — Queue Management Application
Web application project featuring a public queue page and QR-code flow that lets customers access a queue without creating an account.

AI Productivity Tool
AI-powered productivity application concept focused on streamlining everyday tasks and improving workflow efficiency.

Marketplace Platform
Responsive online marketplace project featuring product listings and user interactions.

CERTIFICATIONS

- Introduction to Cybersecurity — Cisco (Apr 2026)
- Responsive Web Design — freeCodeCamp (Feb 2026)
- JavaScript / JavaScript Algorithms and Data Structures — freeCodeCamp (Feb 2026)
- A2 English for Developers — freeCodeCamp (Feb 2026)
- Front-End Software Engineering Job Simulation — Skyscanner via Forage
- Development — Ethiopian Cursor Community (Jul 2026)

LANGUAGES

Amharic — Native · English — A2 English for Developers certificate